STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK / ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

Today’s reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the new Jerusalem. “But,” the bishops’ pastoral on stewardship reminds us, “that ‘life to come’ is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now.”

La lectura de hoy del Apocalipsis ofrece una visión de la Ciudad de Dios, la Nueva Jerusalén. “Pero”, la carta pastoral de los obispos sobre la Administración de los Bienes de Dios, nos recuerda, “que ‘la vida venidera’ está en continuidad con esta vida presente a través de los bienes humanos, los dignos propósitos humanos, que la gente fomenta ahora.”

THE GIFT OF PEACE

“There arose no little dissension and debate.” Did that happen at work this week? Most of us can recall run-ins with coworkers, even with the boss. Did it happen while socializing with friends? Go easy on politics, religion . . . even sports. At home? Even the most peaceful household experiences a little “give and take” now and then. So where was it that “there arose no little dissension and debate”? That tumultuous conflict occurred among our first Christian ancestors, disrupting the community life of the early church. But today’s Acts of the Apostles shows how beautifully the Holy Spirit, promised by Jesus in today’s Gospel, helped the church achieve a grace-filled resolution. What evolved was that “reconciled diversity,” often encouraged by Pope Francis and even envisioned in today’s Revelation passage; and a wondrous experience of Jesus’ promised Gospel gift: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.”

COLLECTION FOR COMMUNICATIONS

The second collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign will take place next weekend, June 1st-2nd, coinciding with World Communications Day. This annual national appeal supports efforts in the United States and around the world to use the media, internet, and print publications to help people connect with Christ. “The mission to proclaim the Gospel, entrusted by Jesus to the apostles, has been carried to us today through our baptism. We continue to share the Good News and help one another encounter Christ through all available means - whether it be through the internet, radio, television, or another form of communication,” said Bishop Gregory J. Hartmayer, OFM Conv., of the USCCB Committee on Communications. “Thanks to the generosity of the faithful in the United States, the Catholic Communication Campaign helps people around the world connect with Christ.”

Fifty percent of funds collected remain in each diocese to support local communication efforts. The other half is used to support national projects in the United States and in developing countries around the world. Here in our archdiocese, these funds are critical to our ability to staff and provide resources for Catholic San Francisco, websites for the newspaper and the archdiocese, the Bridge newsletter, and our social media channels. To learn more about the Catholic Communication Campaign, please visit www.usccb.org/cc. Thank you for your generosity.

SEMINAR ON AFFORDABLE HOUSING

There will be a Seminar on Affordable Housing on Sunday, June 2nd, 10:45 a.m., at Fromm Hall (behind St. Ignatius Church). Come hear a young Catholic couple tell "How We Bought a Home in San Francisco." Christopher Colosi, Harvard grad and entrepreneur, and his wife, Stephanie, expecting their first child, wanted to set down roots in San Francisco. Come learn how they navigated San Francisco's complex below-market-rate (BMR) housing program to buy their first home. The BMR Ownership Program helps first-time homebuyers who are low- to middle-income. BMR homes are specified units sold at below-market rate prices, typically condominium units in mixed-income buildings, with monthly HOA dues. Would it be worth your family's while to try the same process?

The presentation is free, and is sponsored by the Office of Human Life & Dignity of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and the St. Ignatius Adult Faith Formation Program. For more information, please contact Martin Ford, Social Action Coordinator, at (415) 614-5569 or martin@sfarch.org.
