STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK / ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

Today's psalm reminds us that we have been crowned with glory and honor and given rule over the works of God's hands. But we must be good stewards, for the Lord will surely hold us accountable for the use of those gifts!

El Salmo de hoy nos recuerda que hemos sido coronados con gloria y honor y autorizados para gobernar las obras de las manos de Dios. ¡Pero tenemos que ser buenos administradores de los bienes de Dios, porque el Señor ciertamente nos pedirá cuenta por el uso de esos dones!

TAKE ACTION AGAINST SENATE BILL 360

The California Catholic Conference of Bishops (CCC) asks California Catholics to pay attention to the progress of Senate Bill 360 in the state legislature and to express to legislators their disagreement with a proposed law that would require priests to violate the seal of sacramental Confession. The latest news from CCC, and links to take action, are found online at cacatholic.org/thoughts-and-defiance-sb-360. To understand what the Sacrament of Penance is, and what is at stake in this proposed law, the CCC recommends a set of eight short videos published this week on YouTube by Catholic News Service.

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

LENTEN COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Knights of Columbus have completed the processing of all donations from the Baby Bottle Drive during Lent. The proceeds far exceeded expectations and represent the generosity of the parish community toward the Church and those in need in our community. On June 16th, during the 9:30 am Mass, the Knights are making a presentation to Fr. Thuan of the proceeds in the amount of $4,400 on behalf of the many parish families that were part of this effort. As amazing as the amount is, more still are the many sacrifices, acts of charity and concern for the needy in our community that this total represents. Thanks to all who contributed their prayers and donations during Lent; the proceeds will go to fund Community Outreach efforts to aid the needy in our community.

ECUMENICAL VESPERS WITH ARCHBISHOP

This evening prayer will be held on Friday, June 21st, 5:45 p.m., at Star of the Sea Church. A sermon will be given by Armenian Orthodox priest Fr. Barouyr Shernezian. After Vespers, a special reception for young adults will be held at Steins Austrian Pub, around the corner from the church. All are welcome to attend Vespers. (sfarch.org/events/ecumenical-vespers)

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops encourages Catholics to pray and act in support of religious liberty at home and abroad during Religious Freedom Week, which begins on June 22nd, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends on June 29th, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Archbishop Joseph Kurtz states: "Catholics face challenges both in our current political climate of polarization and within the Church. Christian child welfare institutions and Catholics in public life are encountering significant obstacles to their work, while our brothers and sisters in places like Nigeria suffer violent persecution. We want to build solidarity and to encourage Catholics to persist in the struggle to advance the kingdom of God by finding hope in Jesus Christ."

There are various activities planned by the Office of Human Life & Dignity. Resources of all kinds can be found through our website, sfarch.org/freedom.
