STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK /
ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

The sin of the rich man in today’s parable was not that he was rich, but that he failed to share his wealth with the beggar at his gate. He knew Lazarus, perhaps walked by him every time he came in or out, but did nothing to relieve his suffering. Is there a Lazarus in my life? What am I doing to help?

El pecado del rico en la parábola de hoy no era que fuera rico, sino que dejó de compartir su riqueza con el mendigo a su puerta. El conocía a Lázaro, tal vez lo pasaba cada vez que entraba o salía, pero no hizo nada por aliviar su sufrimiento. ¿Hay un Lázaro en mi vida? ¿Que estoy haciendo para ayudar?

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY

What does it mean to be human? What does it mean to be a man? A woman? How can we find happiness? These are universal human questions. Pope St. John Paul II addressed these questions in a series of talks between 1978 and 1983 that we know as the Theology of the Body. Here are two opportunities to learn more:

- “The Body Matters”: Theology of the Body Training Seminar on Saturday, October 5th, 10am–3pm, at St. Brendan Parish Hall in San Francisco. Come learn more and see an exciting new curriculum for K-8 students. $30 registration fee includes lunch and materials; books will be available for purchase. Register at tobet.org/events/tobet-seminars-2019.
- Theology of the Body Workshop on Saturday, October 12th, 9am–4pm, in Pleasant Hill (location provided upon registration). This is a Relationship Conference for teens, parents, and teachers, with catechists. There is no charge; breakfast and lunch included. Pre-registration is required. Hosted by Ethos California in partnership with the Office of Life & Justice, Diocese of Oakland. Learn more and register at ethosca.org.
