STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK / ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

When will I have given enough — of my income, of my time, of my talents? Today's Gospel suggests that only total stewardship will do: “When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say, ‘We are useless servants. We have done no more than our duty.’” (See Luke 17:10)

¿Cuándo habré dado suficiente — de mi salario, de mi tiempo, de mis talentos? El Evangelio de hoy sugiere que solamente una dedicación total a la administración de los bienes de Dios será suficiente: “Cuando hayan hecho todo lo que se les mandó, digan ‘Somos servidores que no hacíamos falta, hemos hecho lo que era nuestro deber.’” (Ver Lucas 17:10)

A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

"RED MASS" FOR THE LEGAL PROFESSION

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone is celebrant and Archbishop Bernard Hebda of St. Paul-Minneapolis is homilist at the annual Red Mass, sponsored by the St. Thomas More Society of San Francisco. The mass is on Thursday, October 17th at 5:30 pm in Sts. Peter and Paul Church. All are welcome to attend. A reception and dinner will follow Mass, and the Thomas More Award for 2019 will be presented to Alameda Superior Court Judge Jeffrey Brand. Learn more at stthomasmore-sf.org/the-red-mass. Attendees can pay for dinner at the event or purchase tickets online at stthomasmore-sf.org/upcoming-events/.

The Red Mass is a seven-century-old tradition of prayer, seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit for those in the legal professions and all who seek justice. The St. Thomas More Society of San Francisco, founded in 1937, is the oldest fellowship of Catholic lawyers and judges in the West, and is named for the 16th century lawyer, judge, diplomat, Chancellor of England, martyr, and saint.

SAN FRANCISCANS—NEW VOTING SYSTEM

San Francisco voters will begin using a new voting system in the November 5th election. The new system features increased number of rankings in ranked-choice voting contests, more intuitive ballot marking, and greater election transparency and security. Ranked-choice voting allows voters to rank candidates in order of preference and eliminates the need to conduct separate runoff elections.

Catholic Charities is helping to inform San Franciscans of these important changes and ways to participate in the upcoming election. We are reaching out to everyone, especially seniors, immigrants, adults with disabilities, and monolingual speakers other than English that are in low voter-turnout areas. For more information, contact the San Francisco Department of Elections at (415) 554-4375 or SFVote@sfgov.org; or visit sfelections.sfgov.org/.
