STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK / ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

Today's Gospel calls all of us — not just the apostles — to go and make disciples. If we cannot actually go to the missions, we can answer Jesus' call by giving generously of our prayers and financial resources to support those who can and do.

El Evangelio de hoy nos llama a todos — no solamente a los apóstoles — a ir y hacer discípulos. Si en realidad no podemos ir a las misiones, podemos responder el llamado de Jesús dando generosamente de nuestras oraciones y recursos monetarios para apoyar a aquellos que sí pueden y lo hacen.

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

NIGERIAN EDUCATION BENEFIT

Fr. Edward Inyanwachi served at parishes in the Archdiocese from 2002 to 2013 while doing graduate studies at USF. He returns from his native state of Ebonyi, Nigeria to share his experiences as a parish priest and director of education for the vast diocese of Abakaliki. In Nigeria, 85 percent of the people must live on less than $2.00 a day. In 2016, the government asked the Catholic Church to administer the poorest public schools in Ebonyi State; so Fr. Edward is tasked with the educational welfare of Ebonyi's poorest children regardless of their faith affiliation.

Join Fr. Edward to learn how the Mother of Mercy Charitable Foundation (MMCF) helps the rural poor. He will speak at Holy Name of Jesus Church, Flanagan Hall on Thursday, October 24th from 6:00–8:00 pm. Admission is $50; all proceeds from your tax-deductible contribution go to MMCF's work. For complete information, visit the website at mmcharitablefoundation.org.

SCREENING OF ST. FAUSTINA MOVIE

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Faustina Kowalska as the King of Mercy. Clothed in a white robe and emanating two large rays from his side, one white and one red, he asked Faustina to paint this image of Himself along with the phrase "Jesus, I trust in You," and to spread the message of mercy around the world. He promised that anyone who venerated this image would not perish. The gripping new docudrama "Love and Mercy" presents unknown facts and recently disclosed documents that shed new light on the vision of Faustina. The film debuts for one night only, Monday, October 28th, at approximately 700 theaters across the United States. There are several showings across the Bay Area. To locate a theater, go to fathomevents.com/events/faustina-love-and-mercy.
