STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK / ADMINISTRACIÓN SEGÚN “EL LIBRO”

We are called to be good stewards of our personal vocations. St. Paul’s prayer for the Thessalonians is therefore ours, too — “that our God may make us worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.” (See 2 Thessalonians 1:11)

Somos llamados a ser buenos administradores de nuestras vocaciones personales. Por lo tanto, la oración de San Pablo para los Tesalonicenses es también la nuestra — “que nuestro Dios los haga dignos de su llamada y que, por Su poder, lleve a efecto sus buenos propósitos haciendo que su fe sea activa y eficiente.” (Ver 2 Tesalonicenses 1:11)

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.

MOVIE ON LIFE OF FR. AUGUSTUS TOLTON

All are welcome to the local premiere screening of Across, a movie about America's first African-American Catholic priest, who was born into slavery and is now on a course toward sainthood. The Venerable John Augustine Tolton (Augustus Tolton) was born in 1854 in Missouri and was ordained a priest in 1886. Across will be a feature film telling his story and is planned to be in theaters in 2020. The producers have completed the first 30 minutes of the movie as a stand-alone short film, which tells the story of young Gus's attempt to escape from slavery in 1863. It has won praise at film festivals, and this is the first Bay Area screening. The free screening will be at St. Dominic's Church on Saturday, November 9th from 7:00–8:30 pm. Learn more about the movie at acrossmovie.com.

ST. PATRICK'S SEMINARY COLLECTION

Next week's 2nd collection for St. Patrick's Seminary needs your help. Since 1898, St. Patrick's Seminary has been dedicated to the ministry of forming seminarians to be priests for the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Most of the priests you know who have baptized, married, and buried your loved ones and who celebrate the Sunday Masses you attend received their education here. We rely on your generosity and that of all the faithful to support the seminarians who will one day serve as your priests and shepherds. Your donation will assist seminarians to develop humanly, spiritually, and intellectually. It will enable them to become effective pastors who lead parishes, counsel parishioners, and proclaim the Gospel. Learn more by visiting the website at stpsu.edu/.
