In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Romans, “God's gifts and his call are irrevocable.” To what is God calling me today? What gifts are mine to share? (See Romans 11:29)

En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pablo dice a los Romanos: “Los regalos de Dios y Su llamado son irrevocables.” ¿Para qué me está llamando Dios hoy? ¿Cuáles son los dones que tengo yo para compartir? (Ver Romanos 11:29)

Despite the suspension of public masses, we continue to offer daily mass for the faithful's intentions. To offer an intention, please contact the Parish Office at least two weeks in advance of the desired date. Donation: $10.00

ATTENTION: Indoor gatherings are not currently permitted under the San Francisco County Public Health Order. For this reason, all churches in San Francisco have been asked to suspend public Masses indoors. Until further notice, all scheduled weekday and weekend masses at Church of the Visitacion will be closed to the public. We will be returning to the livestream schedule that was in place at the start of the pandemic (see below). Only those people necessary to serve the Mass and livestream it will be allowed to attend (no more than 12). Obligation to attend Sunday Mass remains under Dispensation until restrictions and limitations are lifted. But you must keep the Lord's Day holy in other ways, at home. Some ideas are found at sfarch.org/keeping-the-sabbath.

ATENCIÓN: Las reuniones en interiores no están permitidas actualmente bajo la Orden de Salud Pública del Condado de San Francisco. Por esta razón, se ha pedido a todas las iglesias en San Francisco que suspendan misas públicas. Hasta nuevo aviso, todas las misas programadas entre semana y fines de semana en la Iglesia de la Visitacion estarán cerradas al público. Regresaremos al horario de transmisión en vivo que estaba vigente al comienzo de la pandemia. Solo aquellas personas necesarias para servir a la Misa y la transmisión en vivo podrán asistir (no mas de 12). La obligación de asistir a la Misa dominical permanece bajo dispensación hasta que se eliminen las restricciones y limitaciones. Pero deben guardar el Día del Señor de otras maneras, en casa.

STANDING FAST

Matthew opens the scene in today’s Gospel by setting up a conflict. Unlike the parallel story in Mark (7:24), the woman is described as “a Canaanite.” This label serves to evoke the ancient animosity between Jews and other peoples in the region. The woman, who is never named, begs for help for her daughter. The disciples are actively dismissive of her, as a woman and a foreigner, and deem her to be unworthy of their attention. The text suggests that Jesus initially sided with the disciples. But then he recognized the strength of her faith.

Many women, foreigners, or marginalized persons might identify with this woman’s story. Sometimes faith means standing fast, in care for others or in fidelity to truth, even when it seems that no one supports you. Somehow, the woman recognized God’s power and God’s care within Jesus. And Jesus recognized that God was active within her, manifested in her commitment to her daughter. Jesus saw his Father’s larger horizon of care for everyone, Jew and Gentile, within this faith-filled woman.

JOINT PUBLIC STATEMENTS

Archbishop Cordileone and Metropolitan Gerasimos of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of San Francisco spoke with one voice on several recent occasions. In June, they denounced the killing of George Floyd and the ensuing civil unrest and protests. On July 31st, they asked Speaker of the House of Representatives Nancy Pelosi to support HR49, a House measure in solidarity with persecuted Coptic Orthodox Christians in Egypt. Also on July 31st, they expressed dismay at the decision to convert the Hagia Sofia Cathedral in Turkey from its use as a museum to an Islamic mosque. Read a summary of the July statements in Catholic San Francisco, online at catholic-sf.org/news/archbishop-metropolitan-join-hands-for-religious-freedom. GOOD EXAMPLE

A faithful Christian, illumined by the rays of grace like a crystal, ought to illumine his neighbor with the light of good example, through word and deed.

BEAUTY IN A TIME OF CRISIS: AGNUS DEI FROM MASS OF THE AMERICAS

The Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music and Divine Worship has as part of its mission to “open the door of beauty to God.” With all that is going on in the world, does Beauty really matter? Yes, says BXVI director Maggie Gallagher: “Beauty is not a frill or a luxury item, it is a doorway to the presence of God. Beauty is a pathway to the knowledge, the experiential reality, that we are souls, as well as bodies: made in the image of God. Now, more than ever, make time for beauty. Take three minutes and be reminded of what really matters right here, and right now.” A video tribute to priests and religious featuring the “Agnus Dei” from Frank La Rocca’s Mass of the Americas can be found at youtube.com/watch?v=Q6CTUG6i-8E.

MOSAIC TV ON “YOUNG CATHOLICS AND DIGITAL COMMUNICATION”

It is the age of digital communication. The devices that receive and send messages are powerful and portable; we have them in our hands, our pockets, our cars, and our homes; the messaging is ceaseless and seductive, and the flow of information (good and bad, true and false) is practically infinite. Young people especially seem to “live on their devices.” On this edition of Mosaic, our guest expert is Samantha Yee, a young writer and editor, student and scholar, who is already a veteran professional, creating digital communications for Catholic groups. As she says, “If young people are living on the internet, that’s where we have to reach them.” Samantha discusses how she and associated networks of young Catholics live the faith and teach the faith online. This is a rerun of a show first broadcast in May 2018. It will re-air on Sunday, August 30th at 5:30 a.m. on KPIX television Channel 5, CBS Bay Area. Prior episodes of Mosaic are archived on the archdiocesan website, sfarch.org/mosaic-tv.

GRIEF AND CONSOLATION RESOURCES

Looking for resources in a time of grief? The Lord is close to the broken-hearted (Psalm 34). Grief, although difficult, is a normal part of life, although perhaps made harder in a time of pandemic. No one who grieves is truly alone because everyone experiences it. However, in a time of grief people often feel alone, which makes a hard situation even harder. Sister Toni Lynn Gallagher directs the Grief Ministry programs and resources for the Archdiocese: parish programs, online support groups, art therapy groups, workshops, specialized groups for partner loss, those who died by suicide, and more. An updated list of resources is available on the Archdiocesan website at sfarch.org/grief. For more information, please contact Sr. Toni Lynn Gallagher RSM, Bereavement Coordinator, at (415) 317-4436 or tlgallagher@mercywmw.org.
